

ANDAMAN & NICOBAR: THE BEST PLACE TO ENJOY VACATION IN DECEMBER

Andaman & Nicobar Islands are an Indian enclave known for increasing the beauty of the Bay of Bengal. Made up of around 300 islands, which are known for white-sand beaches, tropical rainforests, and mangroves, this archipelago has a stunning coastline that supports a vast marine life, including sharks, vibrant coral reefs, etc. Apart from these things, there are a lot of reasons that make this destination a must-visit place. However, to attain an unforgettable experience, there is a need to travel to this station at the right time, i.e., when you can explore the entire beauty.

The beauty of these islands gets enhanced by its beautiful shoreline, impressive ancient architecture, and the magical underwater world that can be explored during winter months. Hence, the best time to visit the Andaman & Nicobar Islands is the month of December. Furthermore, celebrating Christmas and New Year in these islands could be a great addition to your enjoyment while on vacation in Andaman.

5 THINGS TO TURN YOUR WINTER VACATION INTO AN AMAZING EXPERIENCE

1. SEA WALKING

Sea walking in Andaman is one of the otherworldly activities that tourists must experience at least once in a lifetime. Although adventurous, it is a pleasant way to explore the underwater world by walking on the seabed. Conducted at North Bay and Elephant beaches, this activity enables you to observe the aquatic life from close while you're completely submerged.

2. MANGROVE KAYAKING

When it comes to thrilling yet relaxing adventure, mangrove kayaking is the most preferred thing to indulge in during a vacation in Andaman. It allows you to tour the lush green mangroves while meandering through the water bodies of Andaman. As you leisurely glide amidst the dense greenery, the sound of nature will undoubtedly captivate your mind. Moreover, the tranquil environment of the mangroves is peaceful and provides the perfect opportunity to unwind.

3. LIGHT AND SOUND SHOW AT CELLULAR JAIL

The act of listening to the tales revolving around the tortures of the courageous Indian freedom fighters who sacrificed their lives for the nation's liberty would make you sad but undoubtedly proud. Witness the view of a light and sound show and make your evening entertaining and knowledgeable by imagining the scenes and history of India's struggle for independence.

4. GLASS BOTTOM BOATING

If you are not a fan of being submerged in water for long hours or scuba diving, then glass-bottom boating is the best alternative to experience the underwater world. The transparent bottom of the boat being used in this activity will provide you the chance to have the crystal clear spectacles of the aquatic creatures beneath your feet and without any fear.

5. CELEBRATE CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR

During December, there is an influx of tourism in Andaman, and tourists appear partying and flocking around the night clubs like there will be no tomorrow. Eye-catching places, coupled with a few drinks at a beachside act as the perfect start of your festive season. That's why the Andaman and Nicobar seem to be the well-suited spot for celebrating Christmas and New Year with your loved ones.

ANDAMAN'S WEATHER IN DECEMBER

The weather in Andaman in the winter season, especially in December is moderately pleasant. The average temperature of the place during this time remains around 22 degrees. The humidity that goes down in December and January makes it a perfect time for tourists to indulge in adventurous activities and enjoy the festivities that come in these months of the year.

